VOL. XII. NO. 15/16

TREVECCA NAZARENE COLLEGE, NASHVILLE, TENN.

JUNE 5, 1956

Rev. Greathouse Is Speaker For Commencement; Will Receive Degree

Rev. W. M. Greathouse, Dean of Religion at Trevecca Nazarene College, will give the Commencement address Tuesday evening, June 6, after which he will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Rev. Greathouse was born in Van Buren, Arkansas, but has spent most of his life in Tennessee.

While pastoring the Church of the Nazarene in Jackson, Tennessee, he was graduated from Lambeth College with an A.B. degree in Religion. Two years later he received the Th.B. degree from Trevecca. Then in 1948 he was graduated from Vanderbilt University School of Religion with a M.A. degree in theology.

For several years Rev. Greathouse pastored the Nazarene Church in Clarksville, Tennessee.

Revival Tide Is High

Throughout the year a revival spirit has characterized our chapel services. Students have prayed through in the classrooms and dormitories.

In our closing days of school, God has wonderfully blessed in the salvation of the unsaved and the sanctification of believers. Altar services have been times of great spiritual blessings.

We are grateful for God's presence and blessing, and are striving to live so that He can continue to manifest His Spirit here at Trevecca.

President's Message to Seniors

Seniors, Farewell:

I do not mean to say farewell as a mere parting word but with sincere interest I say fare (you) well. I desire that you fare well intellectually, financially, and spiritually.

Your graduation should be a commencement of a real program of learning. A certain educator said "to learn is to live; to know is to be happy," therefore, I want to encourage you; continue to learn and live.

You should apply your skill in the use of the unlimited natural resources and help God to supply your every financial need.

I trust that your stay with us will help you to fare well as a citizen in the Kingdom of God, that you will obey the laws of His Kingdom, that you will benefit from the blessings derived from Christian service, and that the spiritual table will be spread before you, even in the presence of your enemies.

To the extent that we at Trevecca have not done all that we might have done for you, allow us to make amends for it by doing more for the future students and, if you should feel indebted to us, we will be willing for you to repay us by making a contribution to the Christian education of tomorrow.

President Mackey

Rev. Wachtel Delivers Baccalaureate Address

Rev. D. K. Wachtel, District Superintendent of the Tennessee District, was the speaker for the Baccalaureate Service held Sunday, June 3.

Rev. Wachtel has been superintendent of the Tennessee District of the Church of the Nazarene since 1948. Prior to this time he was for many years an outstanding pastor in the denomination.

As pastor, Rev. Wachtel has served in Georgia, North Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee.

Rev. Wachtel was graduated from Bethel College in North Carolina.

Class, Club of Year Told

This year has proved to be one when competition was keen and interest the highest among our classes and clubs. Each class set as a goal to be the "class of the year" and as a result it was difficult to determine the one to receive the honor.

The following are awarded by the faculty and student council. Class of the year, Senior class. Honorable mention, Sophomore class.

Club of the year, Speech Club.

Be not disturbed at trifles or at accidents common or unavoidable.

The Prize is for the Faithful . . .

Just four years ago a collegiate train pulled out of scholastic station amid the ringing of bells, and the blowing of whistles, and headed for 1956. On board were ninety-five enthusiastic passengers.

The train they boarded that day happened to be a local, which stopped about every twelve miles along the way to take on new passengers.

Three times during the journey the train had lay-overs at division points. This gave a little rest and relaxation while the train was being refueled and reconditioned.

By June, 1956, as the train pulled into T. N. C. Commencement Station, and the tickets were finally checked, it was discovered that thirty-six weary but determined passengers were stepping off to receive their diploma. Class of '56, we salute you.

Success of 55-'56 Leaders Viewed by Student Body

Congratulations to our student officers who have led us through a successful year. E. C. Rose, Lee Eby, Ruth Johnson, Cecil Vaughn, Jan Penix, Tonya Beals, and Bill Jernigan have worked faithfully at their tasks to make ours a better school.

The students say "thank you" for being leaders that they could follow with confidence.

"Boost Trevecca" Is Alumni Theme

A large number of Alumni and members of the senior class met at their annual banquet in the cafeteria, Monday evening. "Boost Trevecca" was the theme of the program throughout the evening. Dr. A. B. Mackey and Rev. C. E. Keys were the principal speakers. The rest of the program was an arrangement of songs and readings by Miss Rose Merchant.

One of the high points in the program was reached when the "Alumnus of the Year" from each state was given a certificate.

Those thus honored were:

John T. Benson	Tennessee
S. M. Shaw	East Tennessee
O. W. Morris	Mississippi
Paul Roy Brown	Alabama
Joyce Smith	Georgia
James Deal	Florida
Jack Myers	South Carolina
Howard Wall	North Carolina
Verlin Archer	Virginia
John R. Browning	West Virginia
T. E. Jones	Kentucky
Asa Sparks	Eastern Kentucky
Claude W. Galloway	Southeast Zone

S.E.A. Consultants Visit Campus

Visiting recently on our campus were Dr. H. M. Ivey, former Superintendent of Schools in Meridian, Mississippi, and Dr. Doak S. Campbell, President of Florida State University in Tallahassee. They came as consultants for the Southern Educational Association.

They inspected our Business Office and our Library. They said that in the library the improvements they had suggested had been made and told Mrs. Mackey, librarian, to continue the progress in the same general direction.

A meeting was held with the consultants which was attended by members of the faculty: Dr. Mackey, Mrs. Mackey, Dr. Adams, Prof. Greathouse, Prof. Phillips, Prof. Childers, Rev. Galloway, Prof. Howick, and Prof. Richardson. The members of the faculty were encouraged to continue work toward doctorates. A question-answer period was included in the meeting.

Following the meeting the consultants were entertained at the home of the Mackeys.

There is no duty we so much underrate as the duty of being happy.

—Robert Louis Stevenson

Student Council Works; Rewarded by Good Year

The Student Council has worked diligently, under the leadership of President E. C. Rose to represent the students' views this year.

One of their many accomplishments was the instigation of a system of parking regulations and car registration. With the completion of a student parking area behind the McClurkan Building and the cooperation of the students with the parking system, the traffic problems on campus have improved tremendously.

For club projects this year they recommended a general school project of buying needed materials for our library.

The point system for judging the activities of organizations was revised at the beginning of the year to give a fairer apportionment of points.

Better Citizenship Week, February 13-18, was a big success.

The most outstanding event of the year was the Student Council Lectures by Rev. Charles Strickland, District Superintendent of the white work in South Africa.

The council had charge of the Friday night programs this year, and is aiding in revising the student handbook for next year.

Seniors Reminisce; Have Class Night

"Frame of Memories" was the theme of the Senior Class Night program on June 1. As class president, Carol Anne Asbury thought of the past. As she saw each graduate's picture in the Darda, he appeared in a large picture frame. Registering as Green freshmen in September, 1952 were: Carol Anne Asbury, Wendell Williams, Ruby Potter, Norma Rowland White, Seth Garrington, E. C. Rose, Paul Schurman, Alene Whitman, Mavis Sharpton, Beatrice Sharpton Cottle, James Cottle, Lillian Felker, Jay Bybee, Violet Coulter, Harry Evans, Joe Jones, Calvin Privett, James Roberts, Forrest McCullough and Roel Nabors. What a time they had struggling through these entrance exams and initiation week. A highlight of their freshman year was the hayride in the park.

Betty Cummings, Paul Cooper, Jasper White, James Erickson and Omer Hamilton joined the class in the sophomore year. The cake-code committee prepared an unsolvable brainteaser.

In September of 1954, Eugene Bergquist, John Gibson, David Martin, Paul Shields, Mickie Smith, James O'Dell, and Mildred Chambers joined the class. The junior year was a busy one. They presented the play, "Little Women." Also they sponsored the Valentine Banquet. They worked hard on the Junior-Senior Banquet, "Moonlight and Roses" and felt it was a success.

As busy seniors the class sponsored the most successful Thanksgiving Banquet in the school's history. Mrs. O. C. Mingleddorff and Mrs. Russell Smith have joined the graduating class.

Now class night is over: the Baccalaureate sermon has been delivered, and tonight will be the crowning achievement of four years of hard work.

With regrets mingled with eager anticipation, they close another chapter in their lives and step into an unknown tomorrow being better equipped for having spent four wonderful years at dear old T.N.C.

Faculty Compliment Seniors at Breakfast

Thursday morning at seven o'clock the faculty entertained the college graduating class at a breakfast.

Dr. Mackey challenged the seniors in a short speech. Humorous sayings were given during the breakfast.

Last Letter Home

Dear Mother and Daddy,

Well, another school year has come to a close. It's been a good year, and we've all had some good times—and a few bad moments, too, I guess.

We've had some wonderful, inspiring chapel services, outings and banquets that were lots of fun and exciting ball games.

I've had fun working on TREV-ECHOES, but I don't know what I'd have done without Tonya. We had some headaches, surely, but she's the best co-editor anybody would ever want. The staff did a good job, too, especially on the last two papers. And we could always depend on Mr. Parsons for editorials.

I'm eager for you to see my Darda. "Ruth Ann" did a wonderful job. She's been a swell friend, too. I'll never forget some of the heart-to-heart talks I've had with her.

Speaking of heart-to-heart talks, Libby and I have had some, too. (Thanks for the good advice, Elizabeth!).

I know you've heard enough about the choir tour, but Helen and I still haven't forgotten the fun we had, the people we met, and the way the Lord's blessings came upon our services.

In closing, dear Mother and Daddy, I want to thank you for sending me to Trevecca Nazarene College. I want to thank you for giving me priceless Christian training from babyhood on up. I want to thank you for the security of knowing your prayers follow me everywhere I go.

I probably haven't got across what I feel in my heart, but everyone with Christian parents knows what I mean.

I'd better sign off; "Brown" says it's dinner time.

Love and Prayers,
JAN

P.S. All "cash donations" have been appreciated, too!

Fine Arts Departments Present Final Recital

The final Fine Arts Recital of the year was presented Friday, May 25, in the Fine Arts Auditorium at 8:00. p.m.

Those participating were piano, LeJeune Irwin, Mary Beth Richardson, Francis Howick, Ruth Ann Duke, Joyce Adkins, Ruth Ann Klinestiver, Edith Mingle-dorf; voice, Barbara Mooney, Delorus Brown, Nancy Thorpe, Edith Mingle-dorf, Larry Finger; speech, Edra Hammond, Bonnie Faye Williams, and Ralph Lee.

The annual tea given by Dr. and Mrs. Mackey, in honor of the college seniors was Tuesday afternoon, May 29.

Pictured are: Mrs. Mackey, Dr. Mackey, Carol Asbury, Wendell Williams, Ruby Potter, Harry Evans.

Music Groups to Travel For Summer Announced

Names of the musical groups which will represent the school this summer have been announced.

They are:

Male Quartet, the Kings Men; Philip Shomo, Jack Cruse, Eddie Irwin, Paul Jackson; Rev. C. E. Keys is the representative.

Girls Trio, the Trevo-Trio, Jo Ann Hennigan, Bobbie Seymore, Nancy Thorpe; Miss Marie Peery, representative.

Asa Sparks, George Houston, and a marimba will travel with Mr. Ford Boone.

I believe that thrift is essential to well-ordered living; and that economy is a prime requisite of a sound financial structure, whether in government, business, or personal affairs. I believe in the soundness of a promise, that a man's word should be as good as his bond; that Character—not wealth or power or position—is of supreme worth.

—John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

From the Seminary . . .

Five former Trevecca graduates received the B.D. degree from the Seminary this month. They are Jack Sanders, Eugene Williams, George Cravens, Lowell Foster, and Eugene Simpson.

Betty Meggs Browning, a Trevecca graduate, has been president of the Parsonettes this past year.

Jack Sanders was one of the student preachers in March.

Studio Recitals Given

Room 108 was the scene of two Studio Recitals on May 24—Speech and Voice.

Those participating in the four o'clock, speech recital were: M. K. Weaver, Calvin Privett, Edra Hammond, Asa Sparks, Bonnie Williams, Carol Anne Asbury, James Erickson.

Those participating in the six o'clock, voice recital were: Delorus Brown, Larry Finger, Edith Mingle-dorf, Barbara Mooney, Nancy Thorpe, Ed Whittington, Rex Houston, Eula G. McNeece, Jimmie Aaron, Alene Whitman, Charles Jones, Don Reddick.

H.S. Graduates 39; Reports Good Year

This year's High School Senior Class has had a very successful year—full of activities. They were the sponsors of the play, "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," which was enjoyed by the whole school and many visitors. They have contributed $140.00 to projects this year.

"Moments to Remember" was the theme of their class night on May 31. Barbara Martin, who has won the honor of the highest scholastic rating, gave the Valedictory speech and Joyce Woods, second highest, gave the Salutatory speech. The Class Will, History and Prophecy were read by members of the class. The giftorians, selected from the Junior class distributed gifts to the seniors. The senior quartet sang "Moments to Remember" and a sextet sang "End of a Perfect Day."

Those in this graduating class are:

Elizabeth Ann Fitch, Beverly Forman, Betty Jane Groves, Linda Lee Hampton, Anne Elizabeth Haynes, Betty Gail Helms, Patsy Louise Kohn, Mavis Cleo Lawson, Meelan Lindsey, Melba Vickers McKenzie.
