Enrollment Up Second Semester

Play Production Class to Renovate Speech Hall

According to the 26 members of the Play Production class there'll be some changes made this year in the general organization of campus dramatics.

Under the direction of Miss Wilson the class has been organized into five committees. The chairmen of these committees constitute a general steering committee which works with Miss Wilson in planning class projects.

Heading the committee on campus organization is Lydia Angier. Committee members are: Ron Kirkpatrick, Marilyn Samp, Clayton Martin, Marjorie Clay and Carol Russell. This group will formulate suggestions for general campus dramatics policies.

Barbara Sanford is chairman of the committee on organization of class sessions and grading. This committee will determine the nature of class sessions and the grading policy. Members are Anna Rose Rives, Anne Knapp and Helen Franklin.

Costumes and hand properties will be inventoried and filed by a committee headed by Mary Stroud. This group plans a complete renovation of the present properties room. Students on the committee are Carolyn Simmons,

Marion Anderson, Nancy McConnell, Joyce Moore and Lura Solts.

Quincy Angier is chairman of the largest committee which is the committee on Stage and Auditorium. Included on this committee are: Roger Cole, Nadine Seward, Terrel Samuels, Milford Schroeder, David Mitchell, Leland Ernest, Ruth Burkhart, Jen Shoemaker and Shirley Thompson.

Clarice Harmon heads the committee on plays and materials.

"I am very pleased with the enthusiastic response of students in the Play Production class," said Miss Wilson today. "I believe that we are going to accomplish a great deal this year."

Miss Wilson added that the group plans to put on a play in the spring.

All School Party To Follow Game

Tonight at 10:00 following the game between NNC and Ricks there will be a party in the dining hall, according to Don Oleson, Chapman program chairman.

The party sponsored by Chapman Hall will enable the new students to become acquainted with other members of the student body.

Remember tonight, 10:00, in the dining hall. Every member of the student body is invited.

Formosa Student Begins Studies

A week ago Wednesday Sanio Kenneth Shen was half the world away saying farewell to his family in Formosa. Today he is in class at Northwest Nazarene College.

Students who have noticed this new sophomore from abroad will be surprised to learn that he has done more traveling during the last few days than most of them will do in a lifetime.

Shen came to the U.S. by plane with a group of over 50 other Chinese students. Many of them will enroll at Columbia University in New York and other Eastern schools. Shen is the only one of the group to come to Idaho.

He flew from Formosa to Tokyo, from there he left Friday on a non-stop flight across the Pacific to Seattle. Saturday night he arrived at the Boise airport. Sunday he was welcomed by NNC President and Mrs. John E. Riley at their home. Dr. Thelma Culver, and Miss Wilson, were also on hand to welcome him.

Shen chose NNC on the recommendation of one of his teachers at the Taiwan Christian College on Formosa, where he went to school for one year and where his father is dean of students. Upon completion of his studies at NNC, Second semester saw an increase in enrollment at NNC as compared with registration a year ago.

Paul Kunkel, associate registrar at NNC, reports a 17% increase over enrollment figures of Feb. 1, 1955.

Kunkel said that NNC has a total of 750 in all its institutional divisions. His figure includes College High School and the evening classes.

A break-down of registration figures reveals that 475 students are enrolled in college for full-time work. There are over 100 townspeople enrolled in the evening seminar on Public Relations and Salesmanship and other classes with late registrations still arriving.

College High has an enrollment of 170 this semester.

Kunkel pointed out that Saturday, Feb. 4, is the final date to enroll for courses this term. He said that completed registration figures will be released next week.

Business Office Release

No student cars are allowed to be parked in the circle drive during school hours, except for brief stops.

Dormitory students are not allowed to park their cars in the high school parking lot.

No cars may be parked behind the Fine Arts building between the driveway and the curb. Infractions of this rule will result in fines being assessed.

Rev. Miller Speaks to IRC

Rev. Ray R. Miller, missionary lecturer for the Mangum Lectures this week, presented a talk on "Communism in Trinidad" at the International Relations Club meeting held Tuesday evening.

Shen plans to return to Formosa and teach.

Although born in Shanghai, Shen moved with his family to Formosa in 1948. The family left China when the Communists occupied Shanghai.

Did It Happen at NNC?

By Richard Reif

It didn't happen at NNC. Oh, no, of course not. It was some other college, some other place. He had been in the Korean war. He was never wounded but he was a casualty. The nice medical term was shell shock. He was in a hospital for months, then he was released. He enrolled as a freshman in college. It wasn't his fault that he chose the wrong college. How could he have known? He was short and well built. But as the months passed he lost weight. In his eyes there began to show a deep well of fear. He dreaded the nights, the terrible evenings in the dorm. For the men had found out. They had found one they could hurt, one they could maim and finally break. He finished that year, but he never came back. They took yellow paint before he left, and in big brave letters painted his name on his door. But it wasn't our dorm. You look and see for yourself. Look on door 39. You won't see anything will you? No, of course not. Nothing but a name painted in large yellow letters.

Bolshevik Has Unique Location

The other day I was watching television and a man came out to demonstrate an electric razor by shaving a peach. If I were doing it I would have a little styptic pencil in case I knicked it and juice started to leak out.

When asked to write an article on the Communist party, I immediately turned to the dictionary and found that the Bolsheviks formed the Communist party in 1918.

But my sharp eye and keen mind also noticed that the word Bolshevik was between the words boll weevil and bolt. Now the boll weevil is a kind of beetle that attacks cotton bolls and a bolt is a rod with a head on one end and screw threads for a nut on the other. Therefore, how could anyone fall for the Communist line, knowing that its charter members have such shabby companions, even in the dictionary?

While paging through this same manual, I noticed that parakeets are hi-fi sparrows, sometimes called technicolor canaries, who used to be as popular as Davy Crockett hats. Henry Trefflich's famous animal department store in N.Y. says that for years people called them Love Birds and kept them two in a cage. Then they found that if they separated them they could learn to talk. Of course about the only thing they learned to say was: "Where's Gertrude?" or "What happened to Joe?"

Some of the droodles you've seen around may have been thought up by the late Colonel Stoopnagle, who was one of our country's most original wits. He used to invent calendars with guard rails to keep people from slipping off week-ends" and make up definitions like: "Inside is stuff that I would have a smaller car or none at all if it weren't for," and "Hair is stuff that men wouldn't worry so much about losing if they didn't have," and "Glue is what flaps on envelopes will stick better if they have good on." And if I may chip in one of my own, A finish is what if it weren't for this definition I would have to try and think of.

Mangum Lectures Close Today

A standing ovation was given to Rev. Ray R. Miller, when he began the Mangum Missionary Lectures Monday January 30. He is superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene in Trinidad, and veteran of 19 years service among the people of Africa and the British West Indies.

Rev. Miller chose for his lecture theme, "Romance". Monday he began with "The Romance of the Unlovely and the Unlovable." Tuesday he spoke on the "Romance of the Unusual and the Adventurous;" and Wednesday on the "Romance of the Impossible and Improbable." Thursday and Friday he spoke on the "Romance of the Unconquerable", and the "Romance of the Unshackled." He chose for the theme song of the campaign, "Let the Lower Lights be Burning."

Urwin Returns as Business Manager

Max Urwin, a senior from Nampa, became business manager of the Crusader at the beginning of this semester. He replaces David Mitchell, a junior from Boise, Idaho.

Urwin was also business manager for the school years 1953-54 and 1954-55.

Dowd, Leupp Attend Meet

On Thursday, January 26, Rev. Ed. Dowd, pastor of the Newport, Oregon, Nazarene Church, and active president of our Alumni Association, presided at the organizational meeting of the Seattle Alumni Chapter. Host and hostess for the evening were the Rev. and Mrs. Roy Yeider, NNC alumni and, pastor of the First Nazarene Church, Seattle, Washington. Professor Thomas Leupp accompanied Rev. Dowd.

The main speaker of the evening was Mr. Les Anderson, who is director of development and assistant to the president of the University of Oregon; his topic was, "The Alumnus and his College."

Co-chairmen elected for the new alumni chapter were: John C. Maxey, 1936, and Ken Meenah, 1940. Approximately 100 alumni and former students were present for the meeting.

While in Seattle Mr. Leupp attended the American-Alumni Association Council conference on the University of Washington campus, and participated in a panel discussion, "The Challenge of the Alumni Association." The council is made up of representatives from Northwestern colleges and Universities and Western Canada.

The conference sessions were well attended. Mr. Les Anderson, the national council president, gave the main address.

Highlight of the conference was a panel of college presidents from the University of Washington, Washington State College, Seattle University, College of Puget Sound, and Clark College.

Mr. Leupp was a guest at the annual Homecoming basketball game at Seattle Pacific College. Seattle Pacific won in an overtime play against Taylor University of Indiana.

Crusaders to Meet
Ricks, Weber

The undefeated leaders of the Intermountain Conference, the Ricks College Vikings, come to Central Gym Friday night and the NNC Crusaders would like nothing better than to present them with their first league loss of the season.

Saturday night the Crusaders will continue their cage wars by hosting Weber College of Ogden, Utah in another conference contest. Both games will start at 7:15 p.m. and will be followed by a Nampa High tilt.

If the Crusaders ever hope to down the Vikings this season in a conference game, Friday night will have to be the time. For Coach Orrin Hill's boys met the Vikings earlier in the season on their home floor and came out on the short end of a 74-65 score.

Ricks is currently well established in first place in the league with a 7-0 record while NNC holds down third with a 5-2 mark. Weber is in fourth with a 3-3 record so far. Boise Junior College hosts Weber and Ricks on alternate nights with NNC.

Last Friday and Monday nights saw the Crusaders win one and lose one against traditional rival BJC. Friday, playing in Boise, the Crusaders lost 42-37 but on Monday they evened things by downing the Broncs in Central 81-55.

NNC will be playing the rest of the season without the services of Dave Gardner who was married recently and will not be in school second semester. Gardner was third in scoring and rebounding for the team and had just set a new school free throw mark at 15 straight. He still had the string going.

Moving up to the varsity from the JVs because of the loss of Gardner is Tom Tracy. Tom played his first game with the Crusaders against BJC Monday night and scored four points.

Trojans Upset
Boise in Overtime Tilt

Tuesday evening the College High basketball squad won an exciting overtime game with the Boise JVs. The game was coming to a fast close with Boise in a one point lead, but Don Olmstead, 6' 2" center, came through with a free-throw to tie the score at 43-43 in the final seconds.

The Boiseans took an early lead in the overtime session, but the home team rallied to a 47-46 triumph as the 3 minute period ended.

Perry Winkle took high scoring honors with 21 points.

Tonight Coach Virgil Vail's quintet travels to Bruneau in conquest of their eleventh win. The Trojans defeated this team in a preliminary to the NNC-BJC game, played in Meridian.

The Trojan squad has a record of 10 wins and one loss. They are tied for first place in the Skyline conference with Melba.

Marshall Science Meeting

The Marshall Science Society held its first meeting of the new semester Tuesday evening, January 31.

Mickey Dean gave a short report on the bird count taken here during Christmas vacation as a part of a national count. Fifty-five species were identified in the Nampa area.

Dr. Ford presented a very interesting talk about the recent meeting of the American Physical Society, which he attended in Los Angeles. One of the highlights of the conference was a session devoted to a review of current research on the anti-proton.

Marshall Science is the campus science organization, and any student who has scientific interests is eligible for membership.

"The How of Selling"

"The How of Selling" was the topic discussed by Mr. Robert Morris at Tuesday night's Business Club meeting.

Mr. Morris is the sales manager of the Northwestern states for the Empire Crafts Corporation, makers of Nobility Plate silver. Mr. Morris donated four demitasse spoons as door prizes.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by Connie Hill and Kathleen Hankins.

Prof. Wilson Gets Gift

The Speech Club held its January meeting on Tuesday at the home of Professor Wilson. Les Martin had the devotions, and the program consisted of examples of various types of speeches. Marvin Brunson gave an introductory speech, followed by an after-dinner speech by Frank Wiley. In a presentation speech, Quincy Angier surprised Prof. Wilson with a lovely briefcase as a gift from the Club. Mr. Wilson then closed the program by giving an impromptu speech of acceptance. Pat Weigelt was in charge of refreshments.

Cupid's Corner

I feel very proud of myself today, for my last arrow hit its mark perfectly, swiftly, and surely! In the early afternoon on Monday, January 30, Marilyn Reeder of Gooding, Idaho and Dave Gardner of Portland, Oregon, exchanged marriage vows in Elko, Nevada. Both were students last semester at N.N.C.

Lilian George, a graduate of N.N.C., recently announced her engagement to Mel Bowers. Wedding plans are being made for June 11, 1956, and after their marriage in California, the couple will move to Oklahoma, where Mel is stationed in the Armed Forces.

The engagement of Miss Marian Irene Franz to Wally D. Brown has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Catherine Franz, 211 Canyon, Nampa. Wally is the son of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Brown, 208 Cottonwood, Grand Forks, North Dakota. No wedding date has been set.

Ten banquets were attended by N.N.C.'s two male quartets, the King's Heralds and the Ambassadors, during Youth Week, January 23 through 29.

Traveling for and representing N.N.C., these quartets provided musical entertainment for both the banquets and church services.

Monday night, January 23, found the King's Heralds in Spokane, Washington, and the Ambassadors in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Tuesday night the King's Heralds were in Yakima, Washington, with the Ambassadors in Moscow, Idaho.

Both groups participated in prayer meeting Wednesday night, Wenatchee, Washington, for the King's Heralds and Lewiston Idaho, for the Ambassadors.

The King's Heralds traveled to Quincy, Washington, for their Thursday night banquet while the Ambassadors remained in Lewiston. Goldendale, Washington, was the Friday night stop for the King's Heralds and Walla Walla, Washington, for the Ambassadors.

Saturday night found both groups eating their last banquet of the tour, the King's Heralds in Pasco, Washington, and the Ambassadors in Pendleton, Oregon.

After the King's Heralds traveled to Kennewick, Washington, and the Ambassadors to Walla Walla for the Sunday morning services, both groups headed back toward N.N.C.

A successful week was reported by both groups.

About 5,500 men, women and children visit the White House in Washington, D.C., each week day on private or conducted tours.

The U.S. population recently has been increasing at the rate of 200,000 a month.

F.T.A. Feb. 7

Students from Boise Junior College will be special guests at the F. T. A. meeting to be held Tuesday evening, February 7, in the Morrison Dining Hall. A discussion will center around the teacher in his relationship with the press, the community, parents, and his profession. Local leaders participating will include Jack Scudder, Harry C. Mills, and John Alsip. Every F.T.A. member plan now to be present! Merit system points will be collected at the door.

Attention Women

Heart Sister Week will be sponsored by A. W. S. February 8-14, so now's the time to put on your thinking caps and work up some clever, original ideas!

By the way, at the recent A.W. S. election, JoAnn Wilcox was elected vice-president, and Peggy Wood was chosen as freshman representative. Upon Berdena Martin's resignation, the A.W.S. Council voted that she be "president emeritus" for the remainder of this school year, and Eleanor Horne stepped up to the presidency.
