In Memoriam:

Dr. L. A. Reed

By

Dr. L. P. Gresham

To the family of Dr. Reed, to the Nazarene Theological Seminary, to the world-wide Church of the Nazarene goes our heart-felt sympathy in the sudden loss of a true friend and great servant. His passing seems untimely, for though he had served long and well, he was not old in years. Dr. Reed gave vigorous and superbly able leadership to the church as preacher and instructor of preachers. His work as editor, author, and counselor in many places and on many levels have left us better and stronger to do the tasks of the Kingdom. We sorrow in our common loss but await that better day when "sorrow and sighing shall flee away."

Former Student Sails

For Mission Field

Rev and Mrs. Reeford L. Chaney of Raleigh, N. C., will leave from San Francisco for Hawaii sometime the last of this month.

They have accepted a three-year appointment to serve under the department of missions of our church and will be stationed at Kailua, on the Island of Oahu, twenty miles from Honolulu.

Mrs. Chaney, the former Barbara Wall, was a former student. While here in Trevecca, she was secretary to Brother Richardson, member of a Cappella choir, and a member of the College Honor Society.

We congratulate Rev. and Mrs. Chaney on their fine work done in Raleigh and are sure that with the Lord's leadership and guidance they will be a blessing in Hawaii.

Reign Over
Freshmen

The week of October 13-17 was a very special week in the lives of the 1952 Freshmen of T. N. C. The sophomores cooperated in every way to give them the "BEST" Freshman Recognition Week possible.

Monday morning at chapel the freshmen marched in last to the reserved seats and were extended a few words of recognition and honor by Dr. Bracken.

At four Monday afternoon about 125 freshmen and sophomores gathered at Shelby Park for an evening of fun. After the games everyone enjoyed roasting weiners.

Each sophomore was given a freshman little brother and sister for the week. The big brothers and sisters had to see that all freshmen were present at the various activities of the week.

Then came the time to nominate the candidates for "King" and "Queen" of the freshman class, which climaxed the evening of fun on the Freshman-sophomore outing.

About 4 a. m. Tuesday morning lights were seen burning in all the dorms, for the sleepy-eyed freshmen and sophomores were preparing themselves for the traditional early morning hike. It was really surprising to see about ninety-five hikers strolling down Murfreesboro Highway at early dawn. A big surprise to the group was the ghost, Inez Miller, who appeared in the graveyard. All listened attentively as she told a hair-raising ghost story. Breakfast at seven in the cafeteria was welcomed by the hungry hikers.

Wednesday night the freshmen and sophomores were special guests at College Hill prayer-meeting.

The candle-light college cafeteria was a lovely scene Thursday night as 120 freshmen and sophomores gathered for a special dinner. (cont. on page 3)

TREVECCA IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT

Right now, as you are reading this article, stop and ask yourself, "Joe, just what are you making Trevecca mean to you?" Then begin to come down the line on each phase of the activities of Trevecca and see what part YOU are playing in each of these.

You came to Trevecca for a purpose. You did not come nonchalantly or merely to spend your father's money. You came with great ambitions, high aspirations and the call of God burning in your heart to be an effective Christian worker for His Kingdom.

The daily routine of classes and study can become quite fatiguing. The variety of activities which Trevecca affords prevents a dull atmosphere. Have you joined the Men's Athletic Association? If not, then do so and enjoy a good hard game of football!

The cultural and social life of Trevecca is not ignored. The Friday evening Fine Art programs provide a place of entertainment for YOU and an opportunity to develop a taste for the finer fine arts. There are banquets for special items.

The highlight at Trevecca is its spiritual life. There is the Christian Workers' Association which challenges us to be about our Father's business soul-winning. Every Monday night a Christian Workers' prayermeeting is provided for YOU, a full hour of prayer, devotion and rejoicing over answered prayer over the victories won in the Christian work over

Is It Right To Be Deferred

From the Daily Nebraskan, University of Nebraska:

Since most of the males returning to this campus have not yet served in the armed forces because of the college deferment system, they are looked upon as shirkers by the mud-caked GI's fighting on the Korean hills. Veterans say they do not blame any man individually for doing everything in his power to keep out of the service, but they do blame a system which enables a certain section of young America to escape a draft call.

Their arguments are understandable, but understandable arguments can be offered in defense of the college deferment system. It is vitally important that the college student has a chance to finish school before his induction. It makes him much more valuable to his branch of the service . . . The world is becoming progressively more complicated, and it takes trained minds to handle the new problems.

Another point . . . is the fact that every man does not automatically receive a deferment just by registering at a university. To be deferred, a man must have either a scholastic average high enough to impress his draft board or receive a passing grade on the Deferment Examination.

In all, no university student should stay awake nights because he is lying in a dorm bed and not a foxhole. Arrangements have been made to ease your guilty conscience after graduation.

Enrollment Drops

More than one-fifth of the total American population will be going to school this year, according to estimates by the U. S. office of education.

But colleges and universities are in for an enrollment decrease of about 10 per cent. The reason: Selective Service.

the week-end. Early morning prayermeeting each day is a stepping stone for the spiritual guidance throughout the day's activities.

Have you entered wholeheartedly into the life of Trevecca? If you leave out any of these phases you will be found lacking in a well-rounded education! TREVECCA is what YOU make it!!!

A Lesson Of Ignorance

An editorial to Freshmen from the University of Washington Daily:

Unless high school graduation exercises have changed, you've heard enough speeches about your journey into the great, wide world. You've been encouraged, advised, warned, amused . . . and, probably, bored to death.

We hope you've not hung out a mental "Do not disturb" sign . . . because through the trite expressions, pompous phrases, glittering generalities, there is often a little truth.

A generation which gave us the roaring twenties, the great depression, and two world wars must have learned something. Not much, perhaps . . . but something. And we don't mean you should be docile note-takers . . . or just indulgently tolerant. You have a right and a duty to reject them if they are wrong. In order to do it intelligently you must know how they argue.

And . . . they may know what they are talking about.

MRS. PHILLIPS WRITES FOR CONQUEST

Mrs. K. W. Phillips, of the English Department, recently wrote an article for Conquest, the monthly publication of the Nazarene Young People's Society. The article was entitled "Your Talents. Are They Developing or Deteriorating?"

It was published in the "Chapel Talks" series, which are brief messages written by members of the faculties of our Nazarene Colleges. The article was entitled "Your Talents. Are They Developing or Deteriorating?"

The theme of the article was that we, ourselves, are responsible for the developing of our God-given talents, that we should develop them, and then consecrate them fully to the Lord.

This article appeared in the October, 1952, issue of Conquest which is in the library. We, the staff, wish to congratulate Mrs. Phillips for this very fine contribution from our school to the general church work.

"I often wondered what professors carried in their brief cases!"

Well, "Hello again to all of you." We are back once again to let you catch up on all the latest news.

We have often heard the old saying, "Isn't it nice to have a friend?" Well Charles Hodge decided Sunday night that he should take one of his friends out to dinner. Is this not right Yvonne Bennett?

That's a beautiful rock you're wearing, Shirley!!! Did "Night Trails" help bring that on?

The other day as I was walking across the campus I heard Bruce Crosby singing, "I'm Always Thinking Of You, Margie." I wonder if the cute little girl in Georgia could be named Margie?

Girls, don't rush the pastors for summer revivals. You may not be as lucky as Nettie Belvin. Of course, you could see her about it.

If you saw Inez Miller walking around on the campus and you thought that she was walking sideways—don't get alarmed because she has only changed her hair style.

Well, whom do you think was at the First Church outing Saturday night? Bill Slonecker and Betty Jewell!

I think our hats should certainly go off to the fine entertainment the Sophomores have given the Freshmen. A great job you've done, Sophomores.

What's this I hear about Arthur Jackson and Bruce Crosby staying up till two o'clock looking for fellows who weren't going on the hike. After all their trouble they went to bed with out finding one boy. Wouldn't they make good detectives?

Did you see whom I noticed at College Hill prayermeeting last Wednesday night? Well, don't tell anybody but I'll let you know the latest. It was Wilbur Davis and Gladys Davis. They aren't brother and sister, either.

Poor Charles Cork has a time making up his mind between blondes and brunettes. It looks as if a certain blonde is winning out, or at least that is what Joyce Blackmon seems to think.

Wonder if Freeman Davis isn't feeling well these days. We notice he keeps as special nurse along with him quite a bit of the time. I believe she is Kitty Smithson.

Until next time — Remember there is someone with a little gray notebook jotting down notes. But you'll never know who occupies the tower.

Freshman Recognition Week

mores gathered for the semi-formal banquet. A delicious dinner of creamed chicken was served by the following seniors: Betty Barnett, Sam Jones; Elaine Richardson, Jim Robinson; Marjorie Stockdale, Bobby Harper; Betty Meggs, Donn Morrow; Marilyn Williams and Bruce Crosby. Many thanks to them for their services.

Dr. Mackey gave the invocation after which the sophomore president, Freeman Davis, welcomed the Freshmen. Howard Spruill, president of the Freshman Class, thanked the Sophomores in behalf of the Freshman Class for the wonderful time they had during Freshman Recognition Week. Dinner music was furnished with Ben Speer's rendering two special numbers, Stardust and How Ireland Got Its Name. The class prophecy was given by Miss Cooner. Special faculty guests were Dr. and Mrs. Mackey, Rev. and Mrs. Galloway, sophomore sponsors, and Rev. and Mrs. Phillips, freshman sponsors. Bro. Phillips pronounced the benediction ending another wonderful evening.

The highlight of the week came Friday night as many students and friends gathered in the auditorium for the final and most important event of the week. The program was centered around the theme TEA FOR TWO which was a semiformal tea. Cannon Hassell and Inez Miller served as host and hostess. The many talents of the freshmen were revealed as the following students took part on the program: Justine Rushing, Carol Asbury, Mary O'Brien, Virginia Arnold, Joyce Blackmon, Ruby Potter, Katheleen Pope, Wanda Cruse, Allan Hollis, Dick Landgrave, Lee Yarbrough, Harold McCue, Donald Severn, Bill Gadd, Wyndell Smith, and Paul Schurman.

The climax of the evening and of the week came as Jim Pate and Gracie Guseman were crowned "King" and "Queen" of the Freshman class by Brother Galloway. Their attendants were Geneva Franz, Wyndell Smith, Virginia Hill and Sam Pickenpaugh. The other candidates were Sarah Jones, Juanita Orndoff, Eddie Dean, and John R. Browning.

Over 1200 votes were cast during the week for the King and Queen. Congratulations to Queen Gracie and King Jim!!

The committee for the Friday night program were responsible for the "wonderful" program. Thanks to Joyce Garrison, Inez Miller and Cannon Hassell; it was a great success.

Then to the Freshman Recognition Week committee consisting of Peggy Dodd, Anna Stucki, Nadine Evans, and Robert Gilliland, we send a bouquet of orchids and many thanks for their efforts.

Freshman Recognition week was a BIG SUCCESS!!!

Personality Parade

Standouts among students at Trevecca College this week are the two students most highly honored during Freshman Recognition Week—King Jim and Queen Gracie.

Jim Pate, Jr.—son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Pate, Sr.—1023 West Cahal Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee—graduate of Litton High School—played basketball while attending Litton—was pitcher for First Church softball team who were city champs this year—18 years of age—"six foot-two"—has black hair and blue eyes—(girls, those eyes are for the queen only!)—elected to serve as treasurer of this year's Freshman class—will study math as his major field of interest with science taking second place in importance—when told of his election to the throne, he gasped, "Good night! I thought it would be Sam!!"

Gracie Guseman — daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Guseman, Morgantown, West Virginia—graduate of Morgantown High School—was active in such intramural sports as basketball and volley ball in high school—also, a member of the Tri-Hi-Y in Morgantown—17 years of age—"five foot-two"—brown hair and brown eyes—(it's all right, boys, she likes you all)—will record the minutes etc. for the Freshman class as secretary—is undecided on her major field of study—when informed that she was the school's choice for queen she stammered, "Honest? I don't know what to say!!"

Halloween Party

To Be Friday

LOOK around the corner-at your calendar. Why- What does Friday, October 31, 1952 mean to you? You guessed it, Halloween!

Sh-h-h! come closer and listen. There is going to be an all-college Halloween party sponsored by the Junior class. Where? Uh-oh! I am not allowed to tell. But you come prepared for an evening filled with thrills, fun, food and laughter. If you frighten easily be sure to . . !

Just a clue—keep your eyes and ears open. Come wearing old clothes, for who knows, except the goblins, where we will end up before this evening is over. Remember! This is confidential.

PRESENTING TREVECCA'S COUNSELING PROGRAM

by K. W. Phillips, Dean of Students

We want it to be clear that the counseling services are open to every member of the student body. The faculty and staff of Trevecca Nazarene College are happy to cooperate in the counseling program; our desire is that through the counseling services and the general atmosphere of Christian friendship, Trevecca College will be a place where young people will know the thrill of being growing persons.

Each college freshman is by now acquainted with his personal counselor who is in charge of his group orientation meetings and some have had the first interview with his counselor. These Freshman Counselors will have counseling hours each week, at which time the Counseling Room in Hardy Hall will be reserved for their personal interviews. The students should see his counselor and arrange the time for the desired interview. One-half hour will be the usual length of the first interviews, now being scheduled by the counselors. Other interviews can be arranged according to the need and desires of the student.

Students other than college freshmen may desire personal interviews with the six faculty members now serving as Freshmen counselors. It is understandable that reasons of personal preference may figure in your choice of a counselor.

To all students, especially to upperclassmen who have no personal counselor designated as yet, it is suggested that, in case the list below does not make it clear whom you should choose as counselor for a special problem, you could have a brief generalized interview with the dean of students who would in turn refer you to the counselor thought best.

The following faculty members are listed with their special areas of counseling so that all students may be familiar with the services available to them, and so they may be guided in their selection of a counselor with whom to discuss a particular problem. Faculty members will also find it useful when referring the student to a counselor who should be prepared to counsel with the student concerning a special problem.

HIGH SCHOOL

A program of group guidance had been inaugurated in the high school department, and is continuing under the direct supervision of Prof. Homer J. Adams, principal. It is hoped that the students in this department will consider well their privileges for personal counseling with Prof. Adams and Prof. Duckett, and also feel free to avail themselves of the special counseling services outlined above.

PERSONAL THANKS

As dean of students, I wish to extend a sincere expression of gratitude to all the faculty for their spirit of cooperation in the inauguration of the counseling program, for their helpful suggestions and for their willingness to give of their time to serve God and Christian youth by this means. A special word of thanks should go to Dr. Gresham, chairman, and other members of the personal services committee which did preliminary planning and some studies concerning various aspects of our college life. I also appreciate all that Dr. Gresham, dean of the College, had done before my election as dean of students, to prepare the way for our counseling, and for planning the orientation program so that the students may receive credit.

Above all, I am deeply grateful to God for His help and guidance. The prayers and beautiful cooperation of the student-body is deeply appreciated.

SAXON AND DUDLEY

PRESENT PROGRAM

The Music Division of Trevecca Nazarene College presented a recital with Miss Esther Saxon, pianist, and Miss Clara Dudley, vocalist, on Friday evening, October 10, in the McClurkan Auditorium. The numbers which Miss Dudley sang for the occasion were: "The Lord's Prayer" by Albert Malotte, "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked" by Geoffrey O'hara, "The Twenty-Third Psalm" by Albert Hay Malotte, "Salvejg's Song" by Edward Grieg, "Cherry Ripe" by Charles Edward Horn, "Life" by Pearl G. Curran, and "Indian Love Call" by Rudolf Frimil.

Miss Saxon's selections for the evening were "Chaconne" by Bach-Busoni, "Reflections in the Water" and "Homage to Rameau" by Debussy, and "Toccatà" by Khachaturian.

Miss Saxon is a former student of Trevecca. Both she and Miss Dudley are now attending Peabody College here in Nashville.

Clio Society Organizes

The Clio Society met September 23 for its first meeting of the 1952-53 school year. The members and guests enjoyed a luncheon prepared by Mrs. L. P. Gresham and Miss Marilyn Williams. Last year's president presented several ideas and suggestions for activities for the coming year.

The business of the Society included the election of officers for the new year. Laurie Murray was re-elected president for his second term. The other officers were: Vice-President, William Hill; Secretary, Marilyn Williams; Treasurer, T. A. Martin; Reporter, Edwin Deese; Historian, Jerry Costa; Parliamentarian, Grant Browning; and Sponsor, Dr. L. P. Gresham.

The Clio Society had its beginning last year during the spring quarter under the capable leadership of President Murray. The society was begun for the purpose of promoting history at Trevecca and furnishing opportunities for students to do further study and research in that field. Active mem-

ENROLLMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Despite the very disheartening entrance exams given prior to registration, the freshmen emerged with a greater number of students enrolled than any other class or division. 100 students are now classified as freshmen, 62 as sophomores, 45 as juniors, and 25 as seniors.

In the four high school grades 89 students are registered; 22 in the demonstration school; while the Junior Theological division boasts 38 future ministers. Special or unclassified students number 11.

A complete count of the college men and women as tabulated by the registrar is as follows:

	Men	Women	Total
Freshmen:	56	44	100
Sophomores:	36	26	62
Juniors:	35	10	45
Seniors:	15	10	25
Total:	142	90	232

The total number of students enrolled at Trevecca is 392.

Chapel Preview

The theme of the chapel services for October 27-31 will be "Recoveries of Christian Faith." These messages will be given by selected faculty members.

"The Creeds" was discussed by Prof. W. M. Greathouse on October 27.

On Tuesday, Prof. K. W. Phillips will explain "The Sacraments."

Prof. Duckett and Dr. A. K. Bracken will give to us messages on "Holy Days." Prof. Duckett's will deal with "Christmas" and Dr. Bracken's will describe the meaning of "Easter."

The final message presented will be "The Fruits of the Reformation" by Prof. W. H. Howick.

Membership is open to all history majors and minors while associate membership is open to all who have an interest in history. Interested faculty members may be honorary members.

The G. A. A. met and elected officers. This was the second meeting of the year and we are still missing some people that should be in these meetings. The officers are president, Clarice Spruill, vice-president, Justine Rushing, secretary, Bonnie Williams, treasurer, Esther Rodgers, and reporter, "Lib" Stucki.

The association has already sponsored one afternoon of ball in which the high school girls took two games out of three against the college girls. The college girls were a little out of practice, but showed great improvement in the last game.

Games scheduled for the near future are: Volly ball games for college and high school, and tennis.

We hope to be able to organize at least three separate teams so that we might be able to work out a better schedule for girls' sports. We will be looking for all you girls out the next time a game is

It was election time October 6th for the Men's Athletic Association as they held their first regular meeting of this school year.

The following were elected to office:

- President—Eugene Williams
- Vice-President—E. H. Heaberlin
- Secretary—Jack Archer
- Treasurer—Grant Browning
- Reporter—Laurie Murray

Aside from the election of officials it was decided that the Upper-Classmen would play the Freshmen in the opening game of the regular football season. As most of you know the Upper-Classmen defeated the High School 24-0. Of course both of these games were practice games and will not count on the seasonal record of any team.

Just in case any of you did not know how those practice games came out before reading this article—Don't let it happen again! Be out there supporting your team. If your favorite lost it could have been your fault. Players alone are not the only factors determining the outcome of these games. The fans have a lot to do with it—so if you can't play come out anyhow—you will have a good time watching.

Game time is Tuesday and Thursday at 4:15. That gives everyone plenty of time to get there after three o'clock classes are over. Come one-come all to the football games! You will enjoy them, I'm sure.

Begin Busy Season

The T. M. A. A. is off to one of its best years in history. There is better spirit and competition than there has been in years. The only thing that would make it a more exciting season would be for the student body to catch the spirit of the teams and support one. The teams are evenly balanced as is indicated by the close game between the High School and the

Costly Game

The Upper Classmen defeated the H. S. 12-6 but it was a costly win. Elmer Heaberlin, as Eagle stand-out all year, broke his leg in the third quarter and will be lost for the entire season.

The High School boys, led by Bill Lancaster, played hard all the way. They have served notice that as Upper Classmen. This game wasn't decided until the end.

Special announcements are posted on the day of every game. For an exciting hour packed with good clean, wholesome fun watch for the announcement of your team and back the boys!

the season grows older they are going to get tougher.

It was an exciting game all the way as the score was tied 6 and 6 until late in the game when an intercepted pass set up the winning.
