DR. SAMUEL YOUNG TO BE BENSON LECTURER

FRESHMEN WELCOME ALL NEW STUDENTS

Trevecca in all its phases—Scholastic Life, Spiritual Life, Recreational Life, and Social Life—was presented to the student body Friday night, January 9, by the College freshman class in honor of the new students enrolling in Trevecca this quarter. The presentation was in the form of a play, "A Day At T. N. C."

Carol Ann Asbury and J. P. Lyles started the day off in a classroom where they were busily preparing their assignments for Speech and English Composition. At the close of this period the choir began to assemble for their rehearsal to sing in Chapel. Members of the choir were: sopranos—Joyce Blackmon, Ruby Potter, Eleanor Richardson, and Velva Sharpes; altos—Carol Ann Asbury, Violet Coulter, Wanda Cruse, and Geneva Franz; tenors—Dick Landgrave, Henry Osborne, Paul Schurman, and Lee Yarbrough; basses—Leslie Holcomb, Harold McCue, Leroy Rodgers, and Wynell Smith. Wanda Naff was accompanist for the choir, and Justine Rushing directed it. Although their inability to keep together or on the pitch brought peals of laughter from the audience, they sang magnificently for the Chapel service.

To accentuate the importance of Spiritual Life at Trevecca, a Chapel service was presented by some 'old' freshmen for the new students. Wendell Williams was in charge of the service, and led the audience in a congregational song. Joseph Sowell, a new freshman, led in prayer; the choir presented the special music, "The Grace That Lifted Me"; Bill Coverdill announced to the new students the banquet to be given that night in their honor. Allen Hollis brought an inspiring message, after which Wendell dismissed the audience with prayer.

Prof. and Mrs. Phillips Entertain At Tea

New students and those returning to Trevecca this quarter were entertained at a tea at the home of Professor and Mrs. K. W. Phillips on Trevecca Drive after the Friday evening program, January 9.

Professor Phillips, dean of students; Lowell Foster, student council president; and Howard Spruill, freshman class president, gave words of welcome to the group. Rose Merchant and Mrs. Maxwell Bennett entertained with readings. Miss Merchant's singing was also thoroughly enjoyed. Justine Rushing, Inez Miller, Mrs. Bennett, and Mrs. K. W. Phillips entertained the group with piano numbers. All joined in singing choruses while Mrs. Bennett accompanied on the piano. Lowell Foster prayed an earnest prayer for the new students.

Justine Rushing assisted at the serving table.

Upper Classmen ! Let Us Know What You Want

One outstanding student, a senior, expressed a wish that she were a freshman again—seeing and hearing of the group interviews and personal counseling services being enjoyed by the freshmen. This student further expressed the desire that upper classmen also be assigned a particular faculty counselor, saying one would feel freer to go to a faculty member if so designated.

Such plans are under consideration for the future of our coun-

T.A.A. Sponsors Program

The T. A. A. has charge of the Friday night program on January 23, 1953. The program will be in the Alumni Auditorium at 7:30. This will be in the form of a "Dr. I. Q." program.

Members of the Athletic Council have met and chosen a Dr. I. Q. and are planning a very interesting program. Come and see how smart you really are!

Revival Tide Sweeps Over Trevecca

"God is still on the throne" rang forth the jubilant praises upon the lips of the students this week as the revival spirit rose and mightily swept the campus of Trevecca College.

The regular routine of school life has been interrupted and time out has been taken to praise the name of our Lord. The chapel services have been unusual this week. Shouts of praise rang forth, tears streamed down happy cheeks, smiles wreathed glowing faces with the glory of God and notes of victory were heard as students prayed through at the altar.

A revival service, Friday evening, January 15, 1953 took the place of the usual Friday fine arts program.

"God is the same yesterday, today and forever." The day of revivals is not past. God is still in the soul-saving business. "GOD IS STILL ON THE THRONE".

GENERAL SUPT. TO SPEAK AT T.N.C.

Dr. Samuel Young, General Superintendent, of the Church of the Nazarene will be on the campus from February 16 until the 20, to deliver the annual John T. Benson Lectures.

This series of lectures is provided by a fund from Mr. John T. Benson, Jr., in memory of his father, Mr. John T. Benson, Sr., who was long a supporter and benefactor of Trevecca.

The Benson Lectures have become an annual event of Trevecca, and have in the past, proved to be a blessing to the students by enlightening their knowledge in selected fields. The enrichment of the spiritual life has always been great because of the evangelistic emphasis placed on the subject of the lecture.

The lectures will be Monday through Friday, at 7:30 p.m. in the Alumni Auditorium. There will be a morning service at the regular chapel hour.

Dr. Young, born in Scotland, has served the Nazarene Church well in capacities of high rank.

He has held pastorates in Salem, Ohio, South Portland, Maine, and Wallaston, Mass. He has served as (cont. on page 4)

Your Conscience Speaks

When examinations are given to test their knowledge, all students may not be entirely free from the voice of their conscience. It seems to speak to them when their final grade is read—a feeling of guilt knows that his or her grade really belongs to Mary or John. He may have taken his answers from a responsible individual who worked and gained his knowledge and perhaps not knowingly revealed it to his companions.

Although nothing is gained, much is lost when a person is tempted to translate his friends' notes for a better mark. That student has learned nothing but has lowered himself not only in name but in character as well. Each time he lets himself cheat and use the words of another, he is turning from his ultimate goal in life.

When examination day arrives a student should be honest not only with himself but his fellow classmates. He should also shy from giving his thoughts and knowledge to another for it is not fair to that pupil when the real test in life arrives. When a person accomplishes this task his conscience will free him and he will be on the right path toward future goals.

Books For Better Living

TIMOTHY BY H. C. MOULE—
This dying letter of St. Paul is warm and heart-moving with messages for heart and life that leaves one with a willingness to listen, worship, and obey the teachings of Jesus.

SERMONS AND OUTLINES ON THE SEVEN WORDS—

This is the fifth in the popular Baker Ministers' Handbook Series. Sermon masters of other years bring messages from seven words of our Savior on the Cross. Easter messages. "The world is perishing for want of the water of life.— Would you give Jesus to drink? Then put the cup of water to their lips— this is practical Christianity." "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me."

Were you at the program Friday night when the Freshmen introduced our new students? If so you probably remember LENA WOOD who was dressed in a lovely red dress which set off her beautiful black hair.

LENA was born in Spanish Honduras, on November 4, 1930. Several years ago she came with her family to the United States and has lived in New Orleans, Louisiana, since that time.

She is a member of the Nazarene Church in New Orleans and has served as president of their N. Y. P. S. She also held office in the Missionary Society.

The Joy of Being Editor

Getting out this news paper is no picnic.

If we print jokes people say we are silly.

If we don't they say we are too serious.

If we stick close to the office all day,

We ought to be around hunting material.

If we go out and try to hustle, We ought to be on the job in the office.

If we don't print contributions, We don't appreciate genius;

And if we do print them, the paper is filled with junk,

If we edit the other fellow's write-up we're too critical;

If we don't, we're asleep.

If we clip things from other papers,

We're too lazy to write them ourselves.

If we don't we are stuck on our own stuff.

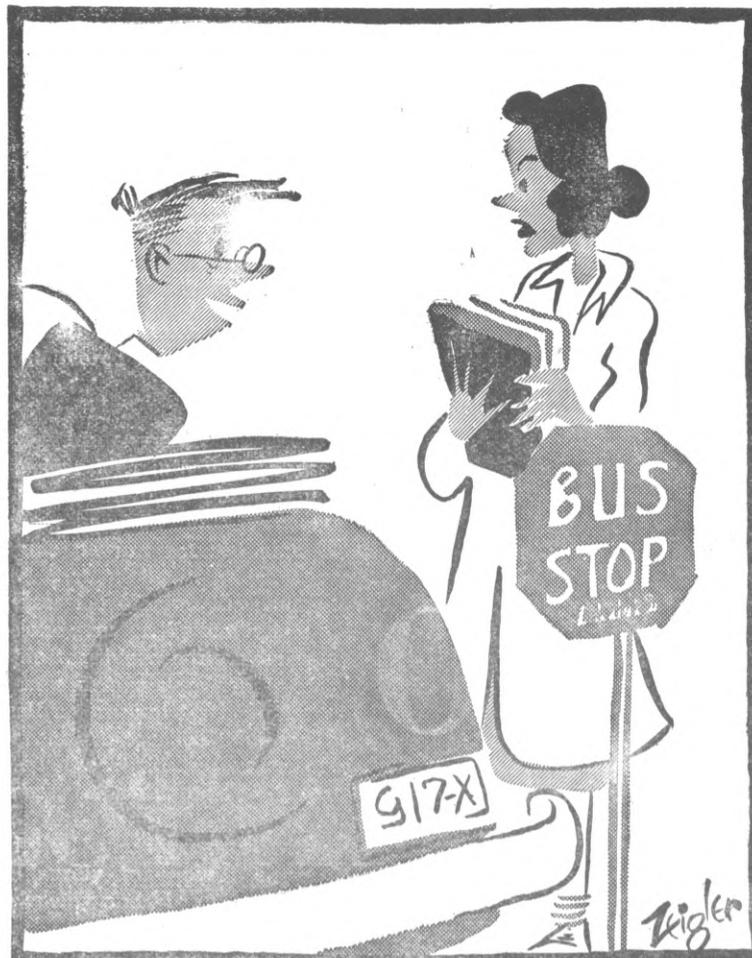

Now, like as not, some guy will say

We swiped this from some magazine.

WE DID!

The Bible

"The Bible contains the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts are binding, its decisions are immutable. Read it to believe, believe it to be safe, practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler's guide, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's charter. Here paradise is restored, heaven opened and the gates of hell disclosed. Christ is its grand subject, our good its design, and the glory of God its end. It should fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet. Read it slowly, daily, prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth, a paradise of glory, and a river of pleasure. It is given you in life, will be opened at the judgement, and will be remembered forever. It involves the highest responsibility, will reward the greatest labor, and condemn all who trifle with its contents." —Whitehead

"Can I give you a lift somewhere? It's right on my way!"

Hi
Kids

Well, here we are once again to chat with you for a few minutes.

Have you noticed the new couples on the campus? A few of these are Gerry Clay, J. P. Lyles; Leila Jones, Louis Johnson; Dorothy Boren, Curtis Galloway.

It certainly is good to see Rose Merchant back on the campus. Welcome back, Rose.

...Also, we want to extend a warm welcome to all the new students!

It seems Carol Asbury has her eye on a certain young fellow. Could his initials be A. H. ? ?

The other day I overheard someone say that in order to get an "A" in a class at Peabody you have to be a genius or "out of this world," so to speak. Well, what does that make Bill Slonecker? He made an "A" in Physics at Peabody ! ! !
FLASH . . . FLASH . . . FLASH

Bill Gadd, Grant Browning, Jim Pate, and Charles Cork are FREE MEN. Girls, here's your chance!!!

Elaine Richardson, tell us more about that "man in your life." I heard his name is James Brooks.

There are quite a few couples going steady now, such as Gracie Guseman, Howard Spruill; Justine Rushing, Harold McCue.

Jack Archer was absent from English Lit class the other day, but Miss Person didn't seem to mind. She said, "I guess we will have to excuse him since he just got married."

Couples seen together a lot lately are: Wanda Cruse, Eddie Gant; Fran Winder Brentson Spruill; Shirley Bash, Melvin Smith; Nettie Belvin, Phillip Goode; Pat Thompson, Dick Landgrave.

From the looks of things now there will be a number of T.N.C. brides this summer. It seems as if Inez Miller, Jean Rodgers, Leila Jones, Billie Toney, and others are really making "big" plans now days!

Wonder if Pfc. Doug Meredith could be the reason Bonnie Faye Williams checks her mail box everyday?

Don't you think Ruth Evans and Jimmy Herndon make a cute couple ?

That's all we have time for now, but don't forget — An Eye From The Tower will be watching You!!

Climaxing the fall quarter orientation classes for the college freshmen was a tea given by the freshman counselors Monday afternoon, December 15 from 3 to 5 o'clock at the home of President and Mrs. A. B. Mackey. Seen above are: seated left to right, Iris Gunther, and Mrs. Mildred Crain who assisted in serving. Standing left to right are: Seth Garrington, Bobbie Smith, Mrs. A. B. Wedding Bells

Wedding bells rang for several of our former and present students over the Christmas holidays. Merlin Provance, a junior in college, and Miss Ruby Murrell, a former student, were married December 23 in Caruthersville, Missouri. Several Trevecca Students attended this wedding.

On Christmas Day, Marguerite Schrope and Robert Ingram pledged vows in Winchester, Kentucky.

Bill Anderson, former Student Council President, and Miss Faye Hardy, were married December 28 in Nashville, Tennessee. The wedding took place at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Burkhalter. They are making their home in Kansas City, Missouri, while Bill is attending the Seminary.

Basketball Season Begins In January

The basketball season at T. N. C. began officially Tuesday night. The games this year are being played in the Lucy Holt Memorial Gymnasium. We all owe a lot to Elmer Heaberlin and Howard Spruill for making it possible for us to use the gym. These two have been working at the gym during the afternoon so that we could play.

The gym is only eight blocks from the school. This makes it possible for a number of the students to attend the games. There have been quite a number at the first two games and all seem to enjoy them. If you need transportation meet in front of the Ad Building at 4:45 P.M. any Tuesday or Wednesday.

Panthers vs. Wildcats

This was the first game of the season and it found the Panthers taming the Wildcats 46-25. However the game wasn't as easy as the score indicates. Grant Browning with 17 showed that he deserved the honors, being captain of the Panthers. However he received a lot of support from Heaberlin who connected for 14. Eugene Williams led the scoring for the losers with 12 points while Joe Browning got 9.

THE DRAFT: YOU'RE SAFE -TILL JUNE...

If you have a 2S draft deferment, it's likely that the board won't bother you till the end of this year.

Selective Service officials say the manpower situation will be adequate till June. But next year there will be a manpower shortage which may make it necessary to draft men under 19.

Draft director Lewis B. Hershey said two weeks ago that tighter regulations are due, which would "reduce the number in college whose military service has been deferred."

He contemplated a program in which "military training should precede college training."

A recent Gallup Poll shows that 69% of the country thinks students getting good marks in college should be allowed to graduate before drafted; and slightly more than half feel that 18-year-olds who have finished high school should be drafted.
